Project Information (EN)

Graduation Show 2021

The Design Academy Eindhoven Graduation Show is one of the world’s most influential exhibitions of work by new designers. Staged annually in Eindhoven during Dutch Design Week, it allows both Bachelor and Master students to present their final projects to thousands of visitors in a curated environment. The Graduation Show helps define and communicate the school’s agenda and stance on design. Bringing together work by over 160 graduates, the show reveals potential new futures, offers critiques on our current reality and engages with complex ideas about what design is, what it does and what it should do. It is both a celebration of the students and an opportunity for the school and its graduates to engage with the wider world, inviting the design community and members of the public to visit and engage with the work on display. Due to its scale and the quality and complexity of many of the projects presented, the exhibition rewards multiple visits.
