'My Data, My Self' Virtual Exhibition

Navigate through the co-design experience of three people living with their personal data. Discover your own ideals along the way.
Wandel door de co-design ervaring van 3 personen en het bewust zijn van hun gegevens. Ontdek al doende jouw eigen wensen op het gebied van data.

Hosted by: Design Informatics, DDI and ImaginationLancaster

Project Information (EN)

Each of our three subjects track their data to help them in their daily lives. We explore their data needs and expectations and how they were being met by corporations, to being confronted with speculative design prototypes showing the breadth of what

Projectinformatie (NL)

De drie hoofdpersonen houden bepaalde gegevens bij voor doelen in hun dagelijks leven. We onderzoeken de data behoeftes van de drie, hoe bedrijven voldoen aan hun wensen, en de confrontatie met speculatieve prototypes die perspectief bieden op wat er z
