Concept, choreografie & performance: Wennah Wilkers Music: Jessy Kemper (BoyBeige) Improvised session by Liam McCall and Enzo Van Kessel: Liam McCall is a dutch bboy who branched out and deliberately explored the exciting terrain of improvisation. His solo will be exactly that - not planned, fully in-the-moment created conversation between him and the electronic music producer and performer Enzo Van Kessel. Enzo, who describes himself as a synthesizer and electronic music fetishist, comes from Utrecht and has been producing electronic music for well over 4 years. He loves anything from rich atmospheric sounds to banging four on the floor kickdrums, and above all making people dance. Him and Liam will take you on a journey through movement and sound.

Spatial installation Together We Dance Alone

Fascinated by dance and club culture, graphic designer Franziska Froebe created an interactive light installation. The work responds to the current restricting pandemic and the human urge to go out. More than ever we've been separated by the screens of our phones and computers, as well as face masks and plastic protection screens. This changed, transformed and fragmented the way we received our surroundings. The installation explores the new reality and creates a safe space for a dance of urgency. Haven't we all missed the vibration in our bellies, the merging movements and the blurriness of a euphoric moment produced by the magic of the night?

Music Lineup

You can expect nothing but quality selections from the resident DJs Trish, Alesya and Alar Motion. We are excited to welcome a special guest - Mr Gibbs. This Amsterdam based DJ is seasoned in all styles electronic and not only. Get ready for that irresistible selection of full body grooves and high energy.
