Remastered Art is a new art style, that combines the past and present and so creates a new art movement. By connecting contemporary artists to outdated work, a new piece of art is created! The artist edits the old work of art, as a result of which two creative souls meet on the canvas; a contemporary and an old master. This process creates a new, interesting and contemporary piece of art. By "remastering" an old painting or portrait, the life of this old piece is extended in an innovative and sustainable way. Old paintings, stowed away in the attic due to varying appreciation and change in taste, are now given a second life!
