

In search for relatable futures

Future Exhibition

Hosted by: Fontys Academy for the Creative Economy

Project Information (EN)

Understanding changes in society

The study program Trend Research & Concept Creation in Lifestyle is on the crossing line of design, creativity and futures research. During the Dutch Design Week our graduates want to show what possible futures can look like, explain visitors how to understand the needs of the now in the changing world of tomorrow. The exhibition is open during all DDW days, from 11.00 to 18.00. On Monday, Wednesday, and Friday from 10:30 to 11:00 AM, there will also be a TCL Talk Show hosted at the exhibiton during which several graduates will explain more about their projects. The exhibiton and talk show are free to attend.

Grip krijgen op de toekomst

De bacheloropleiding Trend Research & Concept Creation in Lifestyle bevindt zich op het snijvlak van design, creativiteit en toekomstonderzoek. Tijdens de Dutch Design Week willen TCL graduates laten zien hoe mogelijke toekomsten eruit kunnen zien, bezoekers uitleggen hoe ze de behoeften van het heden kunnen begrijpen in de veranderende wereld van morgen.
