

GEO—DESIGN: Junk. Johanna Seelemann

All That Is Solid Melts into Trash

Hosted by: Design Academy Eindhoven

Project Information (EN)

With strikingly different approaches to design and research, the exhibition traverses landfills, uncovers the ghosts of dead digital communities and discovers new ecosystems and economies built on detritus. It looks at junk as a microcosm, as an economic

Projectinformatie (NL)

De expositie volgt opvallend verschillende benaderingen van design en research en kijkt daarmee naar vuilstortplaatsen, legt de geest van dode digitale gemeenschappen bloot en ontdekt nieuwe ecosystemen en economieën die op afval draaien. De kunstwerken k
