

Student Service Design Challenge 2020 Finalists Exhibition

The Student Service Design Challenge is a global design award that celebrates, encourages and inspires the next generation of designers.

The student service design challenge is a global design award that celebrates, encourages and inspires the next generation of designers.

Hosted by: Philips Experience Design

Project Information (EN)

This exhibition displays the most inspiring concepts and introduces you to the student design teams, and the research and ideation steps they made to design their services. The Student Service Design Challenge celebrated its first edition this year with

Projectinformatie (NL)

This exhibition displays the most inspiring concepts - full-fledged product-service solutions that complied with the challenge's evaluation criteria: people-centered, society oriented, technology enabled, circular & sustainable, and business viable -

Image List

Filename	Caption	Credit
ssdc-exhibition-2020-banner_1602771323.png

The images above are included in the ZIP under /images.