Project Information (EN)

In the past decade, at least 12B personal accounts were stolen. Moreover, large platforms increasingly turn to surveillance to steer your attention and guide your interactions. Personal data has become a commodity. Things are changing, however. Thanks to

Projectinformatie (NL)

In de laatste tien jaar alleen werden twaalf miljard accounts gestolen. Daarnaast zetten grote platforms meer en meer surveillance in om je aandacht te sturen en je interacties te beïnvloeden. Persoonlijke data is handelswaar geworden. Deze situatie is e
