We live in a world dominated by digital technology but so few of us understand how it all works. With this ignorance comes a disassociation with the materiality of these technologies. The way in which we mine technology minerals is devastating to both peo

Projectinformatie (NL)

Er is een disassociatie met de materialiteit van digitale technologie. Internet bestaat misschien zonder lichamelijkheid, maar de apparaten die we gebruiken, bestaan uit een breed scala metalen en mineralen. De manier waarop we die ontginnen, is verwoeste
